

Montana High School Equivalency (HSE) 19 and Older Application for Online Proctored GED Tests

Applicants 19 years of age and older are eligible to take the GED High School Equivalency (HSE) exam using the online proctored option after Montana residency documentation is presented to the HSE Program at the Montana Office of Public Instruction.

High School Equivalency Testing Administrative Rules of Montana

10.66.111 QUALIFICATIONS FOR CANDIDATE TO RECEIVE HIGH SCHOOL EQUIVALENCY DIPLOMAS

- (1) Candidates shall not be currently enrolled in school or have received an accredited high school diploma or high school equivalency credential.
- (2) Candidates shall receive a high school equivalency (HSE) diploma when scores meet or exceed the minimum score requirement established by the Board of Public Education.
- (3) Candidates must physically reside in Montana and have a Montana mailing address, or claim Montana as their state of residence if tested at a military installation or in a federal correctional institution.
- (4) Candidates must be at least 19 years of age.

Test Taker Information:

Name: _____ Phone Number: _____

Address: _____ City: _____ State: _____

Email Address: _____

DOB: _____ GED ID#: _____

Signature (Participant/Test Taker)

Date

I hereby certify that I am a resident of Montana and that the information provided above is true and correct. I also certify that I will be the sole test taker. I understand that if I provide false information, or if irregularities occur during testing, my scores may be revoked and I may be banned from high school equivalency testing in Montana. By signing I understand that the Online GED Test is recorded for test security purposes.

Send:

- This completed form
- A copy of the test taker's current state issued photo ID documenting Montana residency to:

High School Equivalency Program
Montana Office of Public Instruction
PO Box 202501
Helena, MT 59620

Questions? Call the HSE Helpline at 406-444-4151 or email OPIHSE@mt.gov.

Applications are not accepted via email.

The test taker will be notified via email when approved to schedule exams.